

SUNY College at Purchase
Start-Up NY Campus Plan Summary

Building Space Available

735 Anderson Hill Rd

Purchase, NY 10577

97 SF, vacant conference room in Administration Building

Academic Linkages

Art and design

Performance arts

New media technology

Journalism, creative and dramatic writing

Physical and biological sciences

Psychology and sociology

Businesses

Data visualization or application

Digital imaging, design and animation

Film, music and new media production, post production and application

Non-profit research, analysis, modeling, networking and development

Biotechnology, green technology, clean energy, and land use planning

Urban design, economic and community development

Community and Economic Benefits

Sponsorship and collaboration on faculty-led research

Development of new technologies and intellectual property

Increased internship and employment opportunities for students

Encouraging entrepreneurship among students and faculty

Diversification and stimulation of regional economy

Productive use of underutilized properties

Economic benefit from increased use by existing area businesses

Increasing personal spending in the local economy

Greater tax revenues from new jobs in the area